4. INTRODUCTION TO THE COURSE

In a competitive society such as ours, it is required that the person be an effective communicator and know how to use his or her potential to solve problems and face the challenges of the modern world within the work, intellectual and social activity. Having knowledge is not enough, the important thing is to know how to communicate it and to the extent that the person knows how to use his or her communicative faculties, what he or she has to do in his or her personal and professional development will derive in success or failure. Therefore it is necessary to achieve a good saying, to resort to knowledge, strategies and resources, which every speaker must have, to reach the interlocutor with clarity, precision and conviction.

5. GOALS

- At the end of the course, the student will be able to organize and assume the word from the speaker's perspective, in any situation, in a more correct, coherent and adequate way, through the use of knowledge and linguistic skills, seeking at all times their personal and social realization through their expression, based on truth and constant preparation.

6. COMPETENCES

- f) An ability to communicate effectively. (Usage)
- n) Apply knowledge of the humanities in their professional work. (Usage)
- ñ) Understand that the formation of a good professional is not disconnected or opposed but rather contributes to genuine personal growth. This requires the assimilation of solid values, broad spiritual horizons and a deep vision of the cultural environment. (Usage)
